

Let's Write (Level 2)
Assessment Questions

What's in the News?

1. What are the 4 seasons of the year?
2. List the different sections of a newspaper.
3. What is reported in each section of a newspaper? Choose any 2 sections.
4. Calculate the perimeter of a rectangle with a length of cm and width 8 cm.
5. How is a newspaper useful to us? What are three different things we can do with a newspaper?
6. Create 2 headlines for stories on the front page of the newspaper.

My Encyclopedia

1. Define "encyclopedia"
2. Give two examples of an adjective: two examples of a noun.
3. _____ are words that describe actions (nouns, verbs, adjectives).
4. Add the correct punctuation for the following sentence:

Gravity in science is an invisible force!

5. Add the correct punctuation for the following sentence:

There is no gravity in space: astronauts have to tie themselves to their bed when they sleep?

6. Add the correct punctuation for the following sentence:

Cows: give is milk. from which we make products like: cheese, yogurt, and butter.

7. Explain the difference between an adjective and an adverb.
8. What should you include in your encyclopedia cover?
9. What is the difference between a noun and a verb?

Make Your Own Poem

1. What is the rhyme scheme of a Limerick?
2. Which type of poem is a haiku? How many syllables does it have in total?
3. What are the different poem structures?
4. What are the different figures of speeches you can use in a poem?
5. Can you write a poem using the words "summertime, ice cream, and laughter"?
6. How many syllables are in the following words: book, image, metaphor?
7. Are there any words that rhyme in the following poem?

Example poem: "The wind blows through the trees, rustling the leaves with its cool breeze."

8. Can you identify and circle the vowels in the following poem?

Example poem: "The moon rises high in the sky, with its gentle glow, it lights up the night."

9. What is the difference between a simile and a metaphor? Explain using examples.
10. Can you write a poem using rhyming words at the end of it?
11. Who are some of the most famous poets from your country?

Be Your Own Author

1. What is the purpose of transitional words in writing or speaking?
2. What transitional words can be used to show a sequence of events? Give examples and use them in a sentence.
3. Where do you use exclamation points?
4. Can you write the beginning of a story using this sentence "The last time we went into the forest..."
5. Where do you use exclamation points?
6. Use a comma to separate items in the following list: "I need to buy apples bananas oranges and grapes."
7. Use transitional words or phrases to connect the following events in a story: Ahmed woke up early, he brushed his teeth, he got dressed, he ate breakfast, and he went to school.
8. Re-arrange the pictures to form a story and write a sentence for each picture.

9. Write dialogues for these characters:

10. Create a story map for a story that you want to write. Include the title, beginning, middle, and end of the story, as well as the problem and resolution.

11. What makes a story interesting?

12. Why is it important to use descriptive language and sensory details when writing a story?

Retelling History

1. How many weeks are there in a year?

2. What are the 12 months of the year?

3. How many days are in March?

4. Identify the cause and effect in the following sentence: it was raining today so she got wet when she went outside.

Cause: -----

Effect: -----

5. If October has 31 days, how many weeks does it have?

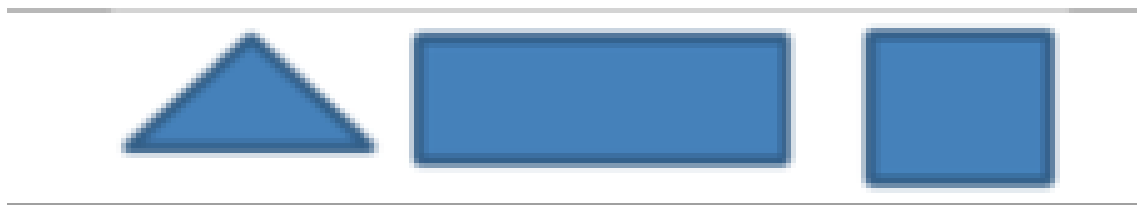

6. Can you tell the time?

7. Write a cause-and-effect statement using the following words:
 - because
 - as a result of
8. Arrange the following sentences to create a story:
 - he then ran back inside carrying the dog and washed and dried him off
 - the boy noticed that his dog was outside, wet and shivering
 - he ran outside to get the dog
 - after his clothes dried, he drank his milk and went to bed feeling warm with his dog beside him
 - a boy was sitting inside his house looking out of the window
 - it started to rain heavily
9. Describe or draw the beginning of your story.
10. Describe or draw what happens at the end of your story.

Design Your Own Comic Book

1. What is meant by a character in a story?
 - a. Person described in a story.
 - b. Feeling someone in a story experiences.
 - c. The time and place the story is set in.
2. Name the following shapes:

3. What is a comic book?
 - a. School textbook
 - b. Magazine

c. Story book with drawings

4. List one difference between a comic book and your school math textbook?
5. Sort the following into nouns, verbs, and adjectives:

Flower, Jump, Chair, Happy, Fat, Thin, Run, Sea, Boy, Sleep, Write, Cat, Sad, Adam, Play.

6. If you have 60 shapes and want to divide them equally in 5 different containers, how many shapes will be in each container?
7. What are two uses of a comic book?